LEARNING
research & explore
• Natural hazards
• Community vulnerability
• Hazard resistant construction
• Governmental functions
• Construction permitting
• Mitigation strategies

STUDENTS
with a variety of skills & interests
• Leadership
• Citizenship
• Model building
• Technical writing
• SET

MENTORS
state, local officials & industry experts
• State project team
• 4-H and Sea Grant agents
• Parish emergency manager
• Floodplain official
• Architects and engineers

COMMUNICATION
exchange of ideas
• Info/data sharing
• Decision-making
• Teamwork
• Partnerships
• Positive press

strong, productive, interdisciplinary TEAM engaged in a common GOAL

Simmer & Stir
Learn - Reflect
Apply

Delicious Results

Community Service
Completed hazard mitigation plan grant application 4-H’ers well seasoned-empowered-confident

Supported in part by the Federal Emergency Management Agency under Grant No. 1603-DR-LA, Project 39 Statewide Hazard Mitigation Community Education and Outreach Project, “Get a Gameplan”.

LSU AgCenter.com/floodmaps
Select a Parish, then enter an address (or Latitude, Longitude) or click and zoom to find your point of interest. Turn on map layers you want to view and compare. Choose the “Hybrid” view to find your house on an aerial photograph.

Mapping Stations made possible by funding from the Federal Emergency Management Agency Grant No. 1603-DR-LA, Project 39 Statewide Hazard Mitigation Community Education and Outreach Project, “Get a Gameplan”.

FLOOD and WIND Hazards
Read Flood Zone, Ground Elevation, and Basic Wind Speed at your point at your Louisiana location!

The LSU AgCenter Floodmaps portal and floodplain and flood insurance education programs receive support from FEMA Region VI through the Louisiana Department of Transportation and Development, Office of Floodplain Regulations.

Find out about Supported in part by the Federal Emergency Management Agency under Grant No. 1603-DR-LA, Project 39 Statewide Hazard Mitigation Community Education and Outreach Project, “Get a Gameplan”.

strong, productive, interdisciplinary TEAM engaged in a common GOAL